

AOGA Legislative Informational Seminar

Kara Moriarty- Alaska Oil & Gas Association

December 8, 2016

AOGA MEMBER COMPANIES

What does AOGA do?

Acts as the voice of the oil and gas industry in Alaska

How:

- Advocate on behalf of industry as a whole
- Testify on legislation affecting industry
- Develop comments and litigate on issues involving endangered species, environmental regulations (e.g. air and water permits), etc.
- Inform the public about oil and gas' importance to Alaska
- Interact with policymakers
- Get involved with ballot measures, as needed

What doesn't AOGA do?

- AOGA is mandated by its bylaws to remain nonpartisan
- AOGA does not endorse, support or otherwise get involved with political candidates. AOGA does not have a Political Action Committee (PAC)
- AOGA is not an employment coordinator for oil and gas companies
- AOGA members all must either produce, explore, transport or refine oil and gas; our members are NOT contractors

Industry partners

- Contractors = Alaska Support Industry Alliance (“The Alliance”)
- Resource development across industries (mining, fishing, tourism, timber, oil and gas) = Resource Development Council
- Statewide business advocacy, including resource issues = Alaska Chamber (formerly the State Chamber of Commerce)

AOGA Management

- Strategic Direction/Managed by Board of Directors
- Each AOGA member has one Board representative
 - One member, one vote
- Like Legislature, bulk of work is done in committee:
 - AOGCC Task Group
 - Environmental Regulatory Committee
 - Government & Public Affairs Committee
 - Legal Steering Committee
 - Tax Committee
- Four, full-time staff members

Environmental/Regulatory/Legal Issues

- Access & Regulations
- Hydraulic Fracturing – AOGCC Hearing, Dec. 15th
- OCS 5-year leasing plan
- Compensatory mitigation
- ESA listing petitions and regulations
- Bearded Seal Listing
- Chukchi Sea ITR Lawsuit
- Polar Bear Critical Habitat
