

Under ACES, production
has plummeted
140,000 barrels/day
It's time for a change.

Work Together. WIN Together.

Show Your Support for Governor Parnell's #1 Economic Priority – Meaningful Reform to Alaska's Oil Tax Structure to increase oil production:

When: Tuesday, Feb. 28, 6 – 8 p.m., and Wednesday, Feb. 29, from 6 – 8 p.m.

Where: Your Local Legislative Information Office. Click here for statewide locations.

You can also listen to the hearing and testify via teleconference at the following numbers:

Outside of Juneau – 1(855) 463-5009

In Juneau – 463-5009

Why: The Senate Resources Committee has proposed SB 192 and will hear from the public. Your voice is important. As Governor Parnell puts it, "Unless we act to reverse this (oil) decline, we will pay a stiff price in lost jobs, lost State revenues, and lost opportunities. This is not the future our children deserve, and this is not a future we will accept."

If you can't testify, send an email to your legislators. You can find out who your representatives are and how to contact them by clicking here.

Other hearings of note:

Monday, Feb. 27 – Department of Revenue leadership's view on SB 192

Tuesday, Feb. 28 – Testimony from AOGA, Resource Development Council, and the Alaska Support Industry Alliance, followed by small producers/explorers.

Tune in to <http://www.AlaskaLegislature.tv> to watch the hearings live. We will distribute the testimony following the hearing.

Meet Bonnie Smith

As the Health, Safety and Environmental Manager for Pioneer Natural Resources, Bonnie Smith knows a thing or two about workplace safety and mitigating risks.

In an effort to help educate Alaskans about the impact of high oil taxes on the Alaska's business environment, Bonnie is appearing in a series of advertisements on behalf of the Alaska Oil and Gas Association (AOGA).
